Chainsaw Safety & Operations During Storm Clean-up

*A Connecticut Road Master Program
Elective Workshop*

September 1, 2009 — Willington, CT
September 2, 2009 — Willington, CT
September 3, 2009 — Willington, CT

8:30 a.m. — 3:30 p.m.
(Lunch will be provided)

Course Description:

This course focuses on how today's chainsaw technology can be combined with proper cutting and handling techniques to yield safe and precise results in every day situations as well as in the extraordinary conditions seen after a storm. Participants will gain a better understanding of trees and/or parts of trees that are under compression or tension and how to use the chainsaw's design and reaction forces to control the release of this stored energy.

Instructor:

Our instructor is Ken Palmer, President of ArborMaster, Inc.

Ken has more than 30 years of experience in the tree care industry. A certified Arborist, he is skilled in challenging and difficult tree removal methods including the use of cranes to dismantle and remove trees. Ken is a well known instructor, speaker, researcher and consultant for the tree care industry. He specializes in chain saw safety and handling, precision tree felling operations, tree climbing, arborist rigging, rescue systems, trainer training and much more.

Who Should Attend:

This program is designed for public works professionals who are responsible for road maintenance and who may be required to operate a chainsaw as part of their duties. This is a perfect class for new employees and a good refresher for more experienced ones. Public Works Directors, Highway Superintendents, Foremen and Crew Leaders are encouraged to attend.
