A Roundtable Discussion on Professionalism in Public Works:

Do You Walk the Talk?

*A Connecticut Road Scholar Program
Elective Workshop*

July 17, 2009 — Hartford, CT

8:30 a.m. — 1:30 p.m.
(Lunch will be provided)

Course Description:

The goal of this roundtable discussion will be to focus on what it means to be a professional in public works. What does it take to instill professionalism in your department? What can you do to change apathy and acceptance of the status quo?

We will discuss six areas of critical importance to the professional future of your department. We will also take a look at some examples of departments that have integrated professionalism into everything they do.

Instructor:

E. Wallace Coyle, Ph.D. is a graduate of both Boston College and the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. Dr. Coyle has taught at the United States Military Academy at West Point, Northeastern University and the University of Massachusetts.

He has presented numerous strategic management training seminars and has served as a professional consultant for a number of corporations and public sector organizations.

He is a certified trainer for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Division of Human Resources and has presented numerous seminars for MassHighway and Baystate Roads.

Who Should Attend:

This program is designed for any state and local personnel who are interested in raising the level of professionalism in their department. Directors of Public Works, Highway Superintendents and Foremen are encouraged to attend.

“As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them.”

~John F. Kennedy
