A Roundtable Discussion on Stormwater Management:
Best Practices in CT

*A Connecticut Road Scholar Program
Elective Workshop*

Upcoming changes to the
DEP Stormwater Permits
will be discussed

May 13, 2009 — Glastonbury, CT
8:30 a.m. — 1:30 p.m.
(Lunch will be provided)

Session Description:

The goal of this roundtable discussion is to bring together representatives from towns and cities in Connecticut to discuss storm water permitting and best management practices in the State.

Technical experts from the Department of Environmental Protection will present information on the latest changes being made to the permit requirements and will also discuss what is working in Connecticut's stormwater treatment and manage.

Each participant will submit a question or area of concern to be discussed and will be expected to participate in the discussion. Bringing your experience and knowledge will enable you to learn from other participants as well as from technical experts.

Instructor:

Our presenter, Chris Stone, Stormwater Permit Engineer with the Department of Environmental Protection, has extensive knowledge of storm water management practices and years of experience in working with the towns and cities of Connecticut in developing their stormwater management programs.

Who Should Attend:

This program is designed for individuals who are responsible for municipal storm water management. Town Engineers, Directors of Public Works, Road Foremen, Crew Leaders, and Highway Superintendents are encouraged to attend.
