CT’s Teen Driving Laws

The focus started nearly a generation ago.
CT’s embracing teen driving laws began nearly a generation ago now.

1997

It began with requiring a permit and passing a 10-question test.
History

The First Passenger Restrictions and Curfew – 2004 and 2005
More crashes, more fatalities bring more questions about effectiveness of new laws
In 2007 a Governor’s Task Force on Teen Safe Driving convened to examine laws and make recommendations.
New and strengthened laws were adopted in 2008 as a result of the task force’s recommendations.
Today

- Nearly a generation has passed since 1997 when CT adopted its first teen driving laws.
- So where are we today?
What does the future hold, where are we heading as we look at the next generation?
