ELECTIVE:
Ethical Decision-making in Public Works

Thursday, September 12, 2013
8:30 a.m. —3:30 p.m.
Cheshire, CT

This module will focus on ethics in the public works environment.
At the end of the day, you will be able to:
   Understand why we need ethics
   Compare the three major standards of ethics
   Identify a strategy for ethics in your organization

We will pay special attention to applying these principles to real world situations so you leave with tips and tools for developing a code of ethics for your department.

Our instructor is Donal Hartman, JD, LLM. Donal specializes in Ethical Decision-making and has presented at national and regional meetings on the subject of Ethics in Public Works.

---

Registration Form

Name: ________________________________________________________________
Title: ________________________________________________________________
Agency: _______________________________________________________________
Phone: _____________________________  Fax: _______________________________
Email: _________________________________________________________________
Address: _______________________________________________________________
City: _____________________________ State: _______ Zip: ____________________
Billing Contact: _________________________________________________________
Billing Phone: ___________________________  Fax: ____________________________
Method of Payment: ____ check      _____ P.O. (# __________________)      _____ DOT

Registration Fee is $100 and includes lunch and workshop handouts. Registration fees are due prior to the workshop. The fee is refundable if notice of cancellation is received 48 hours prior to the start of the program. Please register via email at mary@engr.uconn.edu or fax (860) 486-5718 and mail payment (payable to UCONN) to CT Transportation Institute, 270 Middle Turnpike Unit 5202, Storrs, CT 06269-5202. Please call Mary McCarthy with any questions—860-486-1384