PRESENTS:

PLANNING & MANAGING LOCAL ROAD SNOW & ICE OPERATIONS

WORKING SMARTER NOT HARDER

A Connecticut Road Master Program Required Workshop

September 9, 2008 - Storrs, CT (Class is full)

September 10, 2008 - New Britain CT

September 11, 2008 - Danbury CT

(all sessions are 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.)

Learning Objectives:

At the completion of this course, participants will be familiar with snow and ice operations, anti-icing tools and techniques, de-icing chemicals - do's and don'ts, proper equipment calibration and the environmental impact of winter operations. Participants will get to practice implementation of new technology, snow plans and liabilities through storm scenario exercises.

Who Should Attend:

This program is designed for those who have responsibility for snow and ice control activities of local roads. Highway Superintendents, Road Foremen, Crew Leaders, Directors of Public Works, and Town Engineers are encouraged to attend.

Instructor:

Paul Brown is president of RoadTech, Inc., a consulting company specializing in road management and pavement maintenance issues. Paul was formerly a research engineer for the University of New Hampshire. He has been working with LTAP Centers around the country for several years and has been in the construction industry since 1979.
